Editor's Note

Perhaps it may seem strange that a high school yearbook, eight hundred miles from the sea, and located in a semi-desert area, should select the navy for a theme. However, we believe no other branch of the service is as well prepared to defend the "American Way" as our navy and, since our senior class colors are blue and white, we felt it appropriate to select such a theme. Since the sneak attack on Pearl Harbor, the gallant defense at Wake Island, Colin Kelly's courageous deed, and many other notable incidents, our theme is still more appropriate. We hope you enjoy these many pages.

DEDICATION

TO AN EXPERIENCED sailor on the sea of life—to a master mariner through whose tireless efforts and unending vigilance the graduating senior class has completed a successful voyage through a sea of difficulties. To the one who has stood faithfully at the helm through fair and stormy weather and guided our ship safely into the harbor. To Mr. Paul E. Hollister, because of his unfailing enthusiasm for all of our activities and his careful guidance at all times. do we dedicate this, our 1942 Copper Kettle.

With best wishes

In 1920 he returned to Douglas as principal of the Grammar school, and in 1924 he was transferred to Douglas High school to serve as its principal. SENIORS

Seniors Review Their Four Years

IN THE BEGINNING we acted properly meek, as freshmen should, although we were plenty proud that we were at last eligible for high school training. At the initial meeting of the class, Bob Nash was elected president with La Dorna Romine, Sally Darnell, June Rhodes, Carl Swanson and Jim Haythornewhite filling the offices of vice president, secretary and treasurer, girl representative, boy representative, and yell leader respectively. As customary, we painted the "D", and if we do say so ourselves, it was a neat job of face-lifting. During our freshman year we put on a hilarious comedy called, "Who Gets the Car Tonight," that was coached by Mrs. Eunice Plumb, at that time our class sponsor. At the Hi-Jinx Carnival our class had the bingo booth up-stairs in the old gym.

When we came back in the fall of '39, we were a little older, and also a little wiser. We resumed our work and soon became used to getting up at 7:00 to get to our 8:00 o'clock classes on time. Re-electing Bob Nash as president with Bill Cowan, Sally Darnell, Minnette Harris, Jean Howe, George Diamos, Osmond Collier, and Pat Westbrook assisting him, we, a group of haughty cord bedecked, and make-up adorned know-it-all sophomores, looked forward to a successful year. We noticeably bettered our financial condition by sponsoring a dart booth in the annual Hi-Jinx Carnival, but, however, this was the only economic venture of the class that proved to be profitable.

Upperclassmen, that's us now, and we took part in every function the school had and some activities of our own on the side. Our main problem was finances, but with our capable officers and sponsors, we made enough to take us through the year. We sponsored two shows by Lesselli's marionettes and had the dart booth at the Hi-Jinx Carnival. Our officers for this year were Jim Haythornewhite-President, Bob McCue-Vice president, Sally Darnell-Secretary, King Kenny-Treasurer, Jean Howe-Girl representative, Jack Eicks-Boy representative, and Philip Dunford-Yell leader. We were very fortunate in having individual pictures taken for the annual in our Junior year, too. The Quiz assembly we presented to the student-body was a take-off of a Kay Kyser program, and it proved very comical with some of the replies given by the students participating. The annual Junior Banquet was held May 17th and was attended by approximately one hundred and fifty students, the tables being arranged in a big '42. As the class colors are blue and white, we had big bouquets of blue and white larkspur on the tables for decoration. The Banquet was a no-date affair but the Prom that was held immediately after that was not. The gym was decorated with a false ceiling of pastel colors, and the orchestra was placed in the center of the floor with a white fence and palms around it.

Jim Haythornewhite, with the aid of Bob McCue, Sally Darnell, Minnette Harris, Jean Howe, Bill Luse, and Philip Dunford, launched us off into our last year with the selection of a new design for our class rings. Again we sponsored the Lesselli Marionette show as one way of producing funds for our many activities at the end of the year. The Sadie Hawkins dance and the Valentine dance were very successful and increased our money resources. Ditch Day was held April 6 at Cave Creek and the class must be complimented for conduct. Not one teacher was ducked in the dam as they had been in previous years. The sponsoring of the school play "Ever Since Eve" by our class brought in considerable money. Now to look on that last week of of our High School days. It was a busy one with the

ASSUMING AN INCREASINGLY important position in Douglas High School, the junior class conducted an active and busy schedule, all leading up to the year's highlight, the junior prom.

At the first meeting in the fall, nominations for officers were made, and the officers elected in home rooms that week were: Bill Lorack, president; Bob Corley, vice-president; Nina Ferguson, treasurer; Jimmy Hoffman, secretary; Jack Ramsay, boy representative; Dean Willoughby, girl representative; and Tony Morales, yell leader. Miss Agnes Mahoney was again selected class advisor, and immediatley the class set to work.

Following their own previously-set rule of outstanding assemblies, the class of '43 this year presented an original skit portraying members of the class of '42 ten years from now. With Bill Lorack as announcer, portrayals of Tarzan, a major, a lazy street sweeper, the gay divorcee, etc. made a hilarious and sensational assembly. This skit was presented on March 6.

The ring-toss booth at the Hi-Jinx carnival, sponsored by the juniors and under Lurline Gray, proved to be a most popular booth. Confetti, which was given to each customer to guarantee a prize for everyone, soon gaily decorated the gym floor and lasses' hair. Additional prizes for luck tossers were other teasers; approximately ten dollars profit was made.

Two dances, other than the prom, were given by the junior class; one, a basketball dance on December 6, and the other a ten-cent dance on April 17. These were both held to earn funds to pay for the prom, which was given the last month of school in honor of the graduating seniors.

The junior class had many outstanding students on its roster, who were active in any school club you could name. Jack Ramsay was elected an attendant to the Copper Kettle king, while other juniors ran high in the election. Athletics seemed to be a good field for the class of '43, as many from that class gained note in DHS for their activity. Tony Morales especially carried off the honors, in all four sports; he was also chosen on the all-state basketball team after being chosen co-captain on the conference first team. The juniors also ranked high and amply on the honor rolls of DHS.

The juniors ordered their class rings this year in hopes of receiving them early next fall. And with undying spirit, the class of '43 looks forward to next year, determined to make it even greater and fuller than the last.

The Sophomore Class

AT LAST allowed to enter the front doors minus those frightened glances, and permitted to wear what they please, the sophomore class enthusiastically entered into DHS activities with a vim and vigor equal to any yet seen. With a new group of officers—Leonard Kimble, president; Keith Jackson, vice-president; Dorothy Shinn, secretary-treasurer—the class soon made themselves known in Douglas high school halls. Other officers were Charles Jorgenson and Earl Powles, boy representatives first and second semester respectively; Ruby Mae Whatley and Charlene Reynolds, girl representatives; and Melvin Fields, yell leader. Miss Mildred Dailey was selected as the class sponsor.

Their "dictators" booth at the Hi-Jinx was a means for DHS studes to actively show their feelings toward those three—Hirohito, Mussolini, and Hitler. Four dollars and thirty cents was realized. The assembly, presented in April, proved to be entertaining to the student-body. Under the direction of class officers, an amusing quiz-and-victory theme was carried out.

The members of the class were not left out of school activities. Active in sports, participating in extra-curricular clubs, abundant on the honor roll with the school yell leaders from their class—indeed the sophomores were prominent. Probably the most publicized members were the Schwantes twins. First elected to the status of DHS's yell team, they led high school rooters throughout the year. The twins were chosen as Douglas' princesses to the Sun Carnival Queen in El Paso for New Year's, and they also rode in the Tucson Rodeo Parade. Boys outstanding in athletics include Charles Jorgenson, basketball; Hector Cota, basketball, football, and baseball; Paul McKinney, football and basketball; and Ted Huizar, baseball. Madeline Williams, Dorothy Shinn, and Bill Kelly were prominent in dramatic productions. Indeed this class is well on its way to a successful career in Douglas High School.

The officers for the Freshman class are a follows: Jack Glass-president, Charles Johnston-vice president, Susan Carpenter-secretary and treasurer, Eunice Dage-girl representative, and Walton Walker-boy representative.

The class is made up of Gwendolyn Andrews, Betty Jo Walker, Katherine Griffiths, Albert Verdugo, Carl Mortenson, Rudolfo Perez, Bob Wetzel, Hector Salazar, Cline Schweikart, Edward Huish, Lilia Velasco, Marvin Follet, Ada Ruth Churchyard, Esteban Bourbon, Oralia Carbajal, Cesar Perez, Shirley Reed, John Amalong, Jack Freas, Donald Adams, Dora Villesco, Marjorie Laskey, Bob Denny, Betty Acuff, Javier Le Desma, Victor Martinez, Jo Ann Mason, Ernestine Evans, Pete Gjurjevich, Ellen Thompson, Marilyn McCartan, Oscar Olea, Floyd Kelly, Kirk Slaughter, Francisco Castillo, Frank Vigil, David Cantua, Irene Rubio, Ralph Olea, Elizabeth Hale, Susan Carpenter, Laureano Durazo, Milton Hannum, Earl Rogers, Velda Lillywhite, Van Maxey, Raul Quintana, Larry MacDonald, R. Who's Who of Douglas High School

Twelve students have been selected by a vote of the entire faculty to compose this year's Who's Who. The boys and girls were chosen for achievement in some trait shown during this school year —scholastic, all-round ability, leadership, service to the school, sportsmanship, and outstanding athletic performance. The faculty's first vote constituted a nomination for each position and then several other ballots were required to gain a majority. We feel the manner of selection represents a true and unbiased opinion. Those in this section are to be congratulated.

. . Who's Who of Douglas High School

JEAN HOWE—outstanding in leadership. Jean has been an active member of the Girls' Athletic Association and served as its president this year. Jean rated another honor—she was chosen Copper Kettle Queen by a popular vote of the students. To add to her laurels, she placed third in the posture contest including entries from all southern Arizona.

JIM HAYTHORNEWHITE—outstanding in his leadership qualities. Jim was president of the senior class this year and, although in school only part-time during the second semester, he carried on his official duties in grand style. Jim has worked hard in an effort to carry on all of the senior activities.

PETE BLOOMQUIST—selected for his all-round ability. Pete is a likeable young lad with a yen for both social and scholastic activities. He has served on several senior committees this year and has a willingness to help out whenever possible. He has been a staunch supporter of all school activities.

SALLY DARNELL—selected as the all-round girl, has been a popular senior throughout the year. Sally is an N. H. S. member and has served on several committees. Sally's name also appears frequently on the Honor Roll. She enjoys DHS's social life and this year was voted as an attendant to the Copper Kettle Queen.

Who's Who of Douglas High School . .

PAUL HUBER, JR.—outstanding in service to the school. Not only did Paul play a big part in the production of this annual, but he served on several senior committees and was active in National Honor Society. He was a willing worker in many of the extra-curricular activities of the school. Paul entered the local oratorical contest and was chosen as alternate. He carried through to completion all of the tasks undertaken.

GLORIA & GLENDORA SCHWANTES—were chosen for their display of sportsmanship throughout the year. The twins were always ready with a cheer for DHS but all opponents were treated with consideration, too. Only sophomores, their selection in this section is still more commendable.

KATHERINE KLUTTZ—outstanding this year in service to the school. Katherine served as editor of the Copper Kettle and was a prominent figure in club and class activities. She was the winner of the local oratorical contest and was DHS representative to the D. A. R. convention.

JOE SALGADO—outstanding in sportsmanship he is well deserving of the honor. Joe was a good loser as well as a good winner in all of the athletic contests in which he participated. Joe's greatest attribute was his desire to compete and he gave both track and fotball everything he had. Joe carried his sportsmanship off the athletic field, as well, and he was considerate of everyone.

. . . Who's Who of Douglas High School

GLORIA STOCKS—chosen for Who's Who because of her scholastic ability. Gloria has appeared on the Honor Roll each six weeks period and has maintained a high average.

BOB WETZEL—also selected because of scholastic ability. Bob is only a Freshman, but his name adorns the Honor Roll each grade period. Bob has his work cut out for him if he is to maintain his high average.

TONY MORALES—selected for his athletic ability. Tony is one of the few four lettermen of D. H. S. He stars in all sports and this past year he was chosen on the all-state basketball team. This is the second year Tony has appeared in this section—last year he was selected for leadership.

MARY STICHT—outstanding for her athletic ability. Mary has been active in all of the activities of the Girls' Athletic Association and has captained several of its intergroup teams. She also performed on several occasions with the girls' tumbling group during the basketball games.

Athletics

Coach Milton B. Morse

This is head mentor Morse's thirteenth year in Douglas. Milt's football squad finished only a mediocre season, but his basketball team ended the season in a blaze of glory. Finishing only a .500 per cent season, they went into the finals of the southern conference tournament, giving Tucson one of the best games of the year. Then in the state meet, his team went out in the semi-finals, again to Tucson, in the finest game of the state event.

The Douglas Bulldogs of 1941

Douglas High's twin yell leaders performed admirably throughout the school year and the entire sporting group of the city was enthused with their pep, antics, and pleasant personality. They were only sophs this past year and it's our guess they will wear the gold and black cheer outfits for another two years.

Gloria and Glendora Schwantes

The Bulldogs Open Their Season in 0-0 Deadlock

A green inexperienced Douglas football team took the field September 19, against the more experienced team from Lordsburg and battled them to a 0-0 deadlock. Both teams showed power and deception counting heavily on on reverse plays and end arounds. The only serious threat of the game came in the first quarter when the Mavericks advanced the ball to the three yard marker and had three downs to push over a score but the Morsemen's defense strengthened and they took over on downs.

Florence Gophers are Defeated 13 to 6

A much improved Bulldog team took the field against Florence and set them back to a 13—6 defeat. The only Florence score came in the waning minutes of the first half and they held a 6—0 lead at the interval. The Bulldogs came back full of fight and led by Hector Cota, who reeled off two quick touchdowns, the Bulldogs took the lead and never again were threatened. Cota's first touchdown was a 28 yard run and the other was good for 54 yards. The only Gopher score came from a pass from Johnson to Espinosa.

State Champs Win 7 - 0 In a Thriller

The Bulldogs, undefeated, traveled to Phoenix and lost a heartbreaker to the state champion St. Mary's Knights, 7—0. The Bulldogs took a physical beating but gained a moral victory. The Knights played a perfect game and showed some timely blocking when Cueball Fowler galloped 69 yards to a touchdown in the third quarter which proved to be the winning points. Douglas threatened in the fourth quarter when they advanced the ball to the two yard marker but lost it on a fumble with but seconds left.

Tombstone Dropped 14 -0 in Easy Tilt

The Bulldogs won handily over Tombstone in another night game. The Morsemen scored both touchdowns in the second quarter—the first on a pass from Morales to Salgado and the second on an end run by "Jumpin' Joe". McKay converted both times. The game was listless with Douglas showing poor form. Many believe the team "letdown" after the tough St. Mary's game in which the Bulldogs almost tied the state champs. Morse substituted freely throughout the game in an effort to give his second stringers as much experience as possible.

Douglas Wins on "D" Day - 14 to 0

The Douglas Bulldogs for the ninth straight year upheld their "D" Day tradition, this year at the expense of the Nogales Apaches. Douglas opened with an onside kick, recovering on about the 35. After a series of plays. Salgado passed to Cota who went to the two yard line. McKay then went over and Corley converted. In the third quarter, Douglas took over on their own 27 and powered their way down the field and on a spread formation, Salgado plunged over for the 14 to 0 victory.

Las Cruces Ekes Out 15 - 13 Victory

The Bulldogs met defeat by Las Cruces, 13—15. The margin of victory came on the opening kickoff when Douglas made a safety giving Cruces a 2—0 lead. Douglas kicked to Cruces who, on a pass from Hill to Apadoca advanced to the Douglas 21. Isaacs went over and then converted making the score 9—0. Douglas received and on the next play scored on a pass from Salgado to Morales. Corley converted. Douglas scored again on power plays and led 13 to 9, only to have Cruces come back in the fourth with another touchdown and a 15 to 13 victory.

Tempe Proves No Match for the Bulldogs

The Bulldogs, led by Joe Salgado with three touchdowns, crushed the Tempe Buffs 38-13. Bob Bertelson of Tempe lived up to his reputation as a brilliant passer as his heaves counted for both of Tempe's scores. The score at the half was 14-6 and the rest of the Bulldogs scoring took place in the third quarter.Some outstanding Bulldogs were Salgado, McKay, and Morales in the backfield and Haynie, Gaddy, and Haythornewhite were towers of defense on the line.

Bisbee Pumas Hold Field Day in 34-6 Rout

The Bisbee Pumas and Johnnie Graham invaded the Douglas stronghold on Armistice Day and plowed the Bulldogs under in their worst defeat of the season, 34—6. Douglas made their only tally in the waning minutes of the game when Salgado went over from the two. The kick was wide. Graham and Warner of Bisbee each scored two touchdowns and Zaroni scored one. Crawford converted four times. The Bulldogs were completely outclassed. Bisbee was "hot" and their superior weight wore the Bulldogs down. Warner's drives were powerful and he gained considerable yardage all day.

Bulldogs Earn Commendation in Final Game

A revamped team of Bulldogs journied to Bisbee Turkey day to avenge their earlier defeat by the Pumas but dropped a thriller 14—7. The score was deadlocked 7—7 until Graham went over in the closing minutes of the game. Salgado and Fields led the running attack for the Morsemen with Joe skirting the ends and Fields bowling them over in the center. Bisbee opened up the scoring in the first quarter when they advanced to the ten and Yanez carried it over on a reverse. Crawford converted and the Cats led 7—0. The Bulldogs came back fighting in the third and pinned Graham for large losses. A fumble on a vicious tackle was recovered by Douglas on the five and Salgado toted the mail for the score. McKay converted. With only a minute left, several punts were exchanged and Warner placed one in the coffin corner. Morales then kicked to Graham who made his only return of the day and the Pumas powered their way to pay dirt making the final score 14—7. Douglas regained much of their prestige lost in the initial game.

Bulldogs Finish in State Semi-Finals

The casaba tossers from Douglas made a grand climax to a fair season by capturing second place in the Southern Conference and advancing to the semi-finals in the State Tournament. Each time the Bulldogs were eliminated by the Tucson Badgers, and in each case the boys from the Old Pueblo advanced to the championship bracket and emerged victorious.

In the season opener the Bulldogs faced the Miami Vandals in a double header and dropped both encounters to the defending state champs. The first defeat was 64—39 and the second, 49—37.

The Morsemen then journeyed to St. David where they jolted the Saints 41—30. In a preliminary game the Pups set the little Saints back in a runaway affair 40—8. The Bulldogs then dropped the Florence Gophers in short order to the tune of 37—21. In a preliminary game the Pups made it two in a row when they dropped the fast moving Cananea outfit. The next opponent was the strong Mavericks from Lordsburg who dropped two games to Douglas. The first was a close fray with the Bulldogs emerging with a 48—45 decision and the next was an easy victory for the Bulldogs as they scored a 45—25 win. Tony Morales went on a scoring spree that netted 25 points. The Avalanche's sixth straight win was gained at the hands of the Bisbee Pumas who fell in hard fought game 43—42. This proved to be one of the most exciting games of the season and the Bulldogs' high scoring was done by Jorgenson. In another fast game the Nogales Apaches scalped the Bulldogs by a score of 40—29. The Bulldogs had a bad night and all to the advantage of the Indians. The Bulldogs recovered from their defeat by Nogales and defeated the lowly Patagonia Lobos 53—23. The Morsemen were hard pressed in the first three quarters but in the last half the reserves took over.

In their next fray the Bulldogs met the strong Tucson Badgers and fell before their mighty strength and height 37—25. In the first three quarters the Bulldogs matched the Badgers' score for score but in the fourth quarter the Badgers forged ahead to win by 11 points. The next night the Morsemen crushed the San Simon five administering a severe beating. The score was 60—40. Their bad luck started the following week when the Safford Bulldogs defeated them. Next they took to the road and invaded Tucson and Nogales and lost both games to their foes. The reserves also dropped both games on this fatal trip. The next week two hard games were dropped to the town teams composed of former high school stars representing the Lowell Drug and Devore Auto Supply. The following night Tony Morales returned to the lineup and they defeated Tombstone 43—30. The Bulldogs then journeyed to Bisbee where they dropped a rough game to the Pumas 51—35.

Bulldogs Get Hot in Tourney Play

The Bulldogs started off in the Southern Conference Tourney with an unimpressive win over the Patagonia Lobos whom they defeated 29—21. Their next opponent proved to be the strong Bisbee Pumas who had already split a pair of games during the season with Douglas and anything could happen and did happen. The Bulldogs scored a hard 31—30 triumph which started a free-for-all between the fans in the stands. The Golden Avalanche, after some smart playing, had advanced to the finals where they were facing the stronger Badger quintet who had already defeated them twice. The Badgers were worried from the start when the Bulldogs took an early lead and the half ended in a deadlock, but the Gold and Black offensive slowed down and scored only 4 points in the second half to set the stage for the fourth straight conference crown for Bud Doolen, by a 26—19 count.

By Tony Morales' great show in the tournament he got one of the most valuable player awards and was elected co-captain of the all-conference team.

The Bulldogs also made a grand showing in the State Tournament where they dropped Duncan 34—24 and Williams 46—25 and earned the right to play in the semi-finals with Tucson as their opponent. The game was almost identical to the S. C. finals with the Bulldogs taking an early lead and losing it in the final moments of play. The Tucsonians were victorious 40—32 and they went on to win the State Championship. Tony Morales was chosen on the all-State team due to his brilliant playing in this tourney. Douglas is expected to have a strong team next year and will be a contender for the Championship.

Thinclads "Also Ran" This Season

THE BULLDOGS had a poor track season for the second time in a row. They lost two dual meets to Bisbee and placed third in the Class "B" Southern Conference meet and third in the Eleventh Annual Invitational meet. They converted their efforts into 8 points in the State meet garnering a few third and fourth places.

The Bulldogs showed up fairly well in the first dual meet with Bisbee as they took many second and third places, but got onlythree firsts. Dodds in in the mile run each won his event. The final score of this meet was 68 1/2 to 53 1/2 in favor of Bisbee. One of the features of this meet was Johnny Graham's time of 9.9 in the 100 yard dash, just one-tenth of a second off the State record.

Their next meet was the Invitational in which five schools participated with Bisbee again emerging victorious but hard pressed by the Apaches from Nogales who didn't even have a full team. The Bulldogs were weak in the weights and other field events. Robert Dodds again came through with flying colors as he captured Douglas' only first place.

Row 3 - Fields, Kimble, Gaddy, Jackson, Lewis, Morales, P. Cota. Row 4 - Morse, M. Rochin, J. Jones, Robb, Schultz, Salgado, D. Jones, H. Ledesma.

Bisbee Wins Second Dual Meet

In their next dual meet, they met with the same fate as first. Bisbee scored another easy victory over the Bulldogs' unsuccessful tracksters. This was more of a runaway than the first one with the final score 74$\frac{2}{3}$ for Bisbee and 46$\frac{1}{3}$ for Douglas. Douglas made poor showings in the weights but in the dashes, H. Rochin and Joe Salgado were consistent at second and third places giving Johnny Graham close competition. Robert Dodds and Bill Whisnant scored the only first places for Douglas.

Nogales Wins Southern Conference Meet

In the Annual Southern Conference meet the Nogales Apaches scored an impressive victory over Bisbee and Douglas, the other Class B schools in this district. The feature of this meet was the relay in which Johnny Graham, anchor man for Bisbee, closed the gap between himself and Salgado and won by about five yards setting a new record at 1 min. 36.1 sec.

Seven Earn Right to Compete In State

Seven Douglas trackmen qualified for the State meet. They were Robert Dodds, 440, relay; Tony Morales, high jump; Bill Vincent, 880, relay; Joe Salgado, broad jump, 100, relay; Hector Rochin, 220, high hurdles, relay; Joe Jones, low hurdles; and Jesus Contreras, mile.

Douglas Relay Team Is Threat

The track team scored 8 points in the meet and placed third in the relay. Douglas' relay team, composed of Hector Rochin, Bill Vincent, Robert Dodds, and Joe Salgado, was their big threat. They ran the 880 in 1 min. 36.2 seconds and were defeated only twice during the season. Bisbee beat them in the Southern Conference meet and also in the State.

Prospects For '43 Seem Bright

Next year Douglas should have a more experienced team with almost every man on the squad back. Robert Dodds shows promise of being a record breaker in the 440 and Morales shows promise as a high jumper. The nucleus of the squad next year will be built around Hoffman, Fields, Morales, and Whisnant in the field events and Dodds, Rochin, and Krentz in the dashes. The squad will lose Hunter, Salgado, Vincent, Cowan, and Gaddy.

Baseball Team In The Win Column

FOR THE FOURTH successive year baseball has carried on in D. H. S. This year the comparatively new sport coached by Thelbert Morrow, made a much better showing than usual. The seasons average at this time is about .666, with the only defeats coming at the hands of the Bisbee Pumas,and the strong Tucson Badgers, defending state champions. The Morrowmen this year proved to be good hitters and fair fielders. On the whole, this year has shown 100% improvement over previous years.

Starting out as serious contenders for the State Championship, the Bulldogs took Tombstone, banging out a 25—6 decision in a very impressive game in both the hitting and fielding departments. Then the big test came when the Morrowmen met the Tucson Badgers and fell before their mighty clubs by the score of 11-1. This was a nine inning contest and Douglas started out well, but before the game was very old they were throwing everything but the bats away. They came back to life when they met the Bisbee Pumas and gave them a very sound 16-9 trouncing. The Pumas took an early lead but the Bulldogs overcame it and forged ahead by 7 runs to gain an easy victory. Their next opponent was the Patagonia Lobos who also met defeat at the hands of the Morrowmen. Big Chief had too much on the ball and kept their hits scattered.

Win Three Games In Single Week

This proved to be a busy week and they again looked like champions as they went to Morenci where they made it three in a row in one week by shutting out Morenci 7-0 behind the three hit pitching of "Chief" Gutierrez . Next they encountered the Bisbee Pumas again and in the last inning on an outfield fly the Pumas scored the winning run making the series even at one and one and marking the second loss for the Bulldogs.

Badgers Again Victorious; Bobbles Hurt

The following day they went to Tucson to cross bats with the Badger Brigade for the second time. This game proved to be a pitchers' battle between Joe Valenzuela and "Chief" Gutierrez. The Bulldogs collected more hits, but the Badgers' hits were more timely and they eked out a tough 7—4 win. Three costly outfield errors contributed to the Douglas defeat.

Two Sophomores Pitch Good Ball to Win

The Bulldogs came home to meet the Morenci nine and behind steady four hit pitching by Charles Jorgenson, again defeated the ore diggers 6—0. The day after they donned their travelling equipment and took off for Patagonia where another sophomore, Ted Huizar, took the mound and allowed only two hits as the Bulldogs scored an 11—1 victory over the Lobos.

Douglas Wins Series With Bisbee Pumas

After the rest of one day the Bisbee Pumas came down and invaded our stronghold hoping to forge ahead in the series but were disappointed Lievanos homered and the Bulldogs won a hard earned 7—6 victory. Early the next week the Pumas evened up the series at two all when they scored a close 5—3 win over the Morrowmen.

To finish out the season, the Morrowmen took the first two games of a three game series with Bisbee, winning the inter-city title. Ted Huizar let the Pumas down with 5 hits as the Bulldogs took a 7—5 victory. In the second game, the Big Chief whiffed 11 batters and Douglas won 6—5.

Douglas High School's Sharpshooters

THE RIFLEMEN had a new opportunity offered to them this year when the "Theory of Firearms" class was introduced in school this last semester. Although not all on the rifle team took the course, it created interest amongst others and several matches were fired against teams made up of the Army men stationed here.

Robert Johnston was appointed instructor of the class and he also coached the rifle team. Mr. Johnston has had considerable experience in rifle matches, having fired on the Arizona Civilian team at Camp Perry, Ohio, on several ocassions. He coached until he was called to army duty in April at which time Mr. Jay Negri took over as Firearms teacher and Mr. Al Joss became coach of the rifle team.

Mr. Joss has qualified twelve times to shoot in the matches at Perry and he has entered the matches three times earning an instructor's certificate on each occasion.

The class teaches the Theory of Firearms and shows the correct and careful way of handling a gun and provides practice periods for shooting. It tries to stimulate interest in target shooting and in Rifle Club.

Postal Matches Are Arranged

Several postal matches were arranged, the first being shot against Prescott early in the season. The Prescott gunmen eked out a narrow victory by a 3 point margin. The score was 483 to 480. Matthews of Prescott took the high honors of the match by scoring 100 out of a possible 100 for his team. Thornton Maxwell led the locals with 97 points, closely followed by Jim Hoffman and Page Hatch with 96.

Tucson Badgers Outshot by Locals

The next match was with the Bisbee Pumas and the locals were again edged out by a small margin. The following week the Bulldog snipers shot another match with the Tucson Badgers. The locals retaliated from their earlier defeats and outshot the Badgers by a 69 point margin.

Douglas Scores High in Hearst Matches

The team entered a national match sponsored by Randolph Hearst. The DHS riflemen made above the average. The following scores were made: Thornton Maxwell, 175; Page Hatch, 164; Bill Luse, 153; Malfred Crabtree, 162; and Don Hoover, 147. This match consisted of twenty shots fired at a standard bull's-eye 50 feet away through an iron sight. All targets were furnished by the sponsors and the scoring was done by them, also.

Firearms Class Outshoots Army Team

After the Hearst matches were fired, the team suffered a severe handicap when Thornton Maxwell, high point man in all their matches, broke his elbow and was out of competition until the early part of May. When Mr. Joss took over the rifle team and the actual firing of the class in Firearms, he arranged several matches with teams composed of the army men stationed in the city. The first match was won by the high school snipers by a 12 point margin. Max Cooper and Jim Hoffman shot a 282 for high scorers. Donoban of the Army shot 245 to lead his team.

Three types of shooting were used in the Army match. These were: slow fire prone position, rapid fire prone position, and rapid fire sitting. In slow prone each contestant is given ten shells which are to be fired in ten minutes. In rapid fire prone and sitting, each contestant is given ten shells which are to be fired in one minute.

Other matches are being arranged for the Firearms class; however, at this writing none had been definitely scheduled.

Girls Athletic Assn.

THE OFFICERS for the GAA this year were Jean Howe, president, Veda Huish, vice-president, Eula Brown, secretary, and Cordy Robertson, treasurer. Under this leadership, and with the advice of Mrs. Bob Johnston, the club enjoyed a very successful year. The first activity was the sponsoring of the refreshment concession at the football games. This undertaking proved to be very successful, and much profit was realized. The GAA also had charge of the refreshment concession during the Southern Dristrict basketball tourney. This also was a success. The association presented one of the most interesting assemblies of the year, when they dressed members to represent different members of the football squad. The Bingo booth, which the girls ran at the Hi-Jinx carnival was not very successful. April 18, at the annual play-day, which was held in Tucson this year, Jean Howe and Beverley Brisley brought Douglas honor by placing in the posture contest. During the year the club held hikes and picnics to different locales around Douglas. On one of these occasions the girls captured a live gila monster. Members of the organization also enjoyed several

Mrs. Riley and James Lewis talking things over. What do you want to bet that James wants to get out of class and Mrs. Riley doesn't think he ought to? . . . . Hey, you dopes, how many people do you think can play a piano at the same time? Anyway, you are supposed to be decorating for the Coronation Ball, not playing chopsticks. . . . Some D. H. S. boys having what they call a good time, and then they wonder why Mr. Carlson objects to their playing on the lawn. . . . Orchestra members standing in front of the band room gossiping while they wait for the professor to show up.

Spirios and George, as usual are together. What's the matter boys you expecting to have your picture taken? . . . Another class room scene. George looks studious, Art mad and Jean . . well, how would you describe her expression? . . . Before school at noon, with Casanova Hall turning his charms on the girls again. . . . You had better stop that talking Robert and Andy, Miss Welcome isn't going to like it. . . . A typical scene on our Alma Mater's front porch with everybody doing last minute bits of homework. . . . Well, anyway you ought to know now what the front of Bob's car looks like.

1. In the back of Haythornewhite's truck. The boys hook a ride. 2. Cordy busy at the typewriter with Travis Lindsey looking on. Must have been a story for the "Border Bulldog." 3. A scene at the Hi-Y meeting. Shortly after, the prexy called the meeting to order. 4. What heavenly bliss. 5. Frosh and sophs just waiting to get in the gym. 6. Ruthie and Foozy trip the light fantastic. 7. One of the class rooms in the gym—must be econ—all on seniors. 8. Charlie Long takes over at the door prior to opening at 12:47. The thundering herd surges in. 9. Foozy and Bob caught in a gleeful mood.

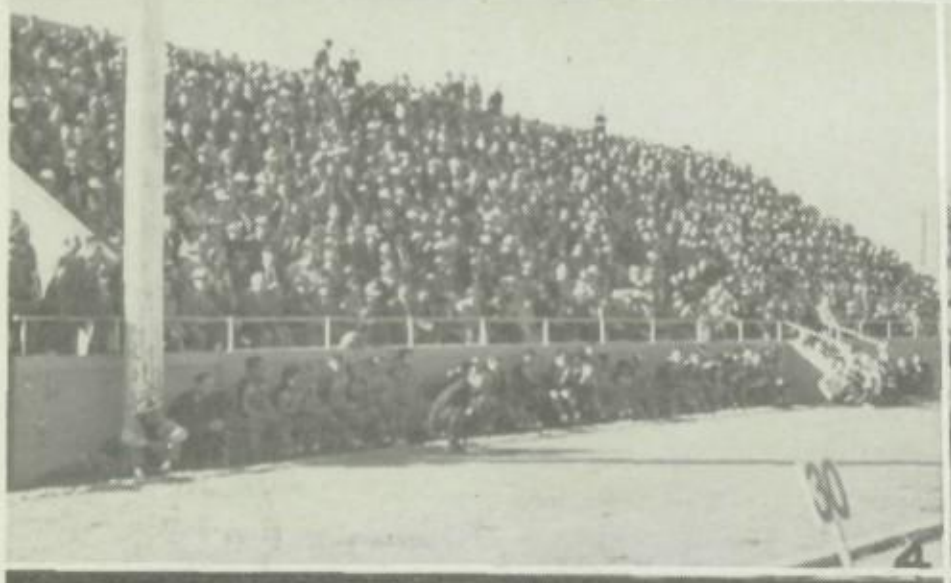
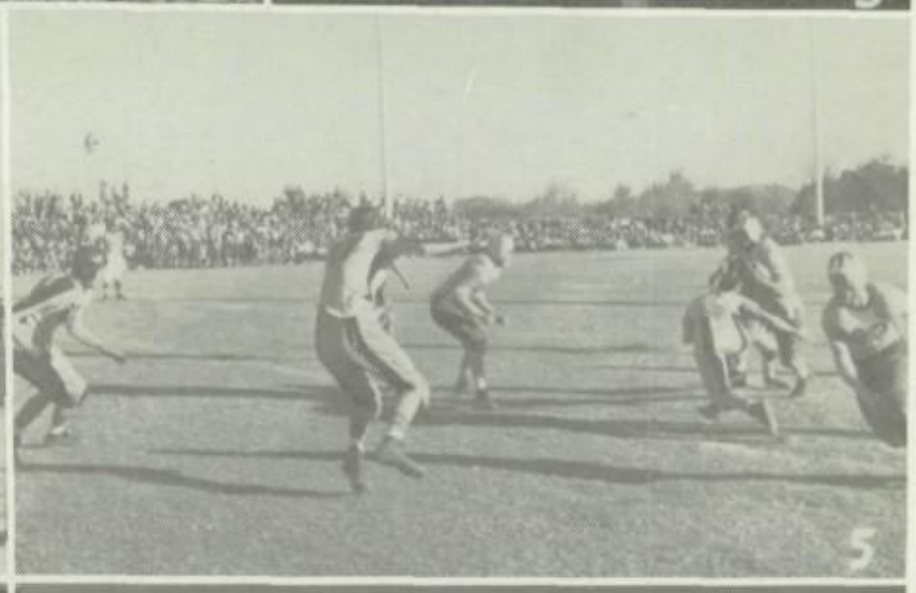
Hi! Mr. and Mrs. Huber. In case you kids didn't know it, that's our C. K. advisor and his wife. . . . Mr and Mrs. Butch look happy, or maybe they are just doing that for the benefit of the camera man. . . . English, World History, and Geometry, wow!! what a combination. I didn't mean that as a slam to the teachers. They're pretty nice, don't you think? (applepolisher!—who, me?) . . . . Hello, Mr. Sanders. Hey, where's your wife? Oh, I see her over there in the corner. My, what big grins you have! . . . . The Dunhams pose for their pictures. What are you trying to do, Mr. Dunham, imitate Napoleon? . . . . In case you have been wondering, all these teachers are going to a faculty dinner in honor of the newly married faculty members of D. H. S.

Well, it looks as though the dinner is well under way. It's a miracle that the photographer got them to stop long enough to have their pictures taken. Oh, well publicity always did hold an attraction for some people . . . Miss Moore, oh, oh excuse me, Mrs. Bob Johnston looks indignant. What's the matter? Has somebody been wisecracking? . . . . Mrs. Alfred Hess, our music teacher, Mrs. John Watkins, an English teacher, and Mrs. Harlow Ream, another English teacher, all seem interested in reading something. Wonder what it could be. Little remarks about their marriage maybe? . . . . . What is Mr. Johnston doing? Your guess is as good as mine. Must be amusing anyway.





1. One of the yell teams in action. Reading left to right they are Margot Soto, Bob McCue, and Margaret Rice. Nice team, too. 2. Ready for a kick off—what abuse these footballs take. 3. Another one of the yell teams trying out for honors—they are Dorothy Shinn, Dorothy Croft, Eleanor Moore, and Ruth Miller. 4. Armistice Day crowd in the stadium. Good thing it isn't a close-up so the facial expressions are visible. Oh! what a day. 5. Out in the midfield--looks like Pooch Warner covering ground and he made plenty of yardage that day. 6. One of the night games. Looks like an anxious moment. Can you find yourself? 7. Tony Morales (7) runs loose against the Nogales Apaches. Douglas won handily and then the crowd went wild. Not many chances to celebrate so we did when we could.

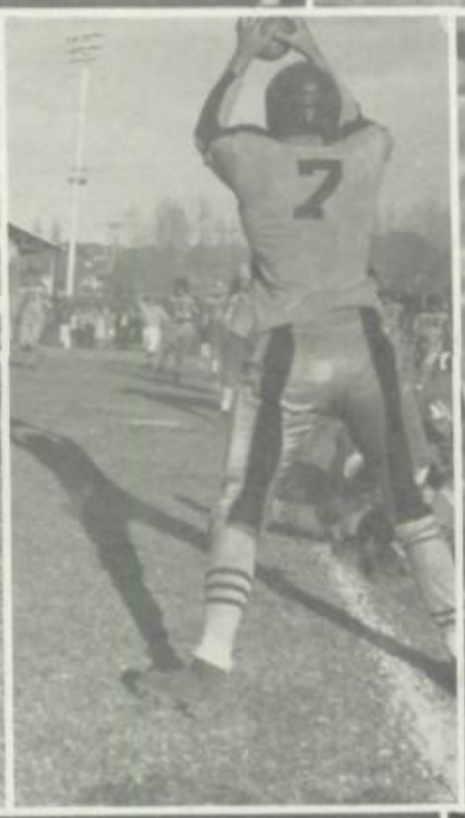
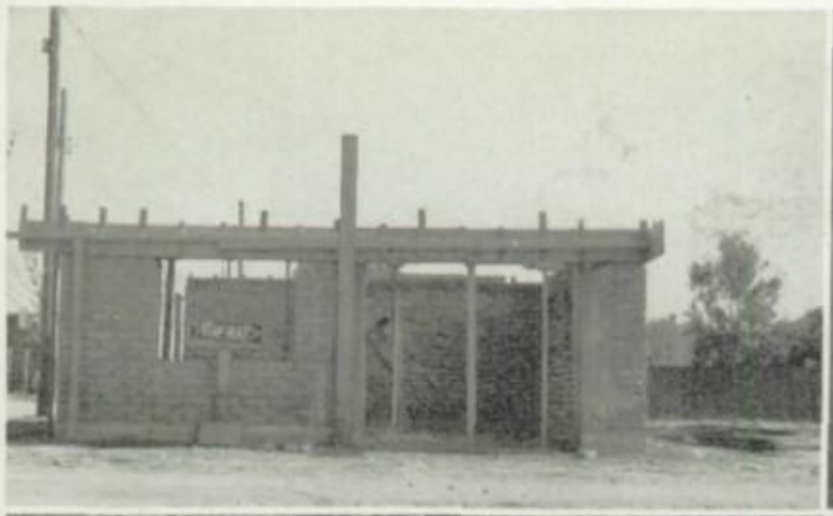
. . . Some More Football - Fun and Otherwise

Stepping out—the Douglas twirlers lead the march at one of the night games. Looks pretty nice, too. . . . Bisbee's twirlers perform before t h e stadium. Daytime so they couldn't use their lighted batons. . . . It'sthe ghosts—they all look amused and happy. Was it fun, fellows? . . . Tony catches a lateral in the Bisbee game-it was ruled a forward and didn't count, so-o-o it was no go. . . .Hit it harder you guys - tear him limb from limb-must be Graham this week. . . . One of these Nogales Apaches on the go, but he didn't get far. As we remember it, the Apaches were bottled up all night-all dressed up, but no place to go. . . The students mill around. It must be halftime cuz they look awfully quiet, or else the game is just one of those dull ones. If Douglas scores though they'll come back to life and how.



Odds and Ends Department . . . . . .

Well, hello Nogales where did you come from? That's quite a pose, Clayton. . . . Hi! wolves, whacha been doing, you look like several cats that have eaten a bunch of canaries. . . . Peek-aboo! Who's your friend Madeline? Is she bashful or something?. . . . From the looks of things Cordy is feeling pretty happy. There is Ray Ferguson in the back stringing somebody a line of bull. . . . Travis and Jim look industrious but I'll bet they didn't keep that up for very long. . . . Whoops! something is wrong somewhere, there is only one twin. You're a better guesser than I am if you can tell which one it is . . . . . Oh, I know, they're the Florence football players. For a while I didn't recognize them.



It seems that some thieving soul has a sense of humor or don't you think so? . . . . . This must be part of the officials and audience at one of the S.C. games. Gee some of those games were good. . . . .Some of DHS's females. It must be the sun , they couldn't all be as unhappy as they look. . . .Mr. Dunham, what have you been doing now? From the looks of things, G.G. is getting "told," but then sometimes looks are deceiving . . . . They aren't out in front, and they aren't playing on the lawn or doing anything else wrong so they must be the freshmen—amazing deduction! . . . . The Journalism class. Really though they work pretty hard sometimes, and things really rush on Thursdays.

. . . . . Little Bit of Everything

Bev, doing her stuff in a hula dance at the Hi-Jinx Carnival. I shot an arrow into the air, said Mr Dunham as he showed his prowess as a Robin Hood to several including his own son, Bruce. It's a pity they didn't include the target in the picture. . . . Oh-h-h a real skeleton, in a real coffin screamed several of the girls who entered the Junior Music Club's House of Horrors. It did kind of scare you to see that in the dark. . . . In the N. H. S. base ball throw, Ozark Johnston bit the dust. Miss Dailey is still standing, but shows the effects of a severe battle. . . . Come one come all, hit the most hated men in the world at the Sophs' baseball throw! . . . . . Hirohito took the blunt of the attack all evening-not a sneak attack either. The twins doing a tap dance with their usual oomph at the Hi-Jinx show.

Wow! Spooks! and Boo-o-o . . . .

Best of LUCK to an expert + authority on firearms. - "Spud" - Page Hatch

The characters of "Ever Since Eve" come out of character for this pose. Page Hatch, "Spud", is just where you would expect to see him. Wow! What are you doing, Dorothy? This is the scene that "Betsy" flaunts the long underwear for "Spud" to don—and she sees that he does it, too. 'Member, she comes out with his shorts for proof . . . . . The production staff poses—lots-of-work-and -no-credit group so we thought they should be included in this snap . . . . A scene from the play—the editors are in for it as the principal and advisor get "on their ear" because of an item that appeared in print.

The seniors on Ditch Day and from all reports they had an excellent outting, ducking, and what not. . . . . Spirros takes a sun bath, or is it a "bawth?" . . . . . Nancy and Pat taking it easy atop the truck. . . . . Looks like Bev is getting the worst of it—no fair—two on one. . . . New style, Eleanor? Looks like a tin hat the doughboys wear. . . . . Tch, tch, tch —invading the girls' boudoir . . . . . Getting ready to eat or somepin'. . . . Should have a picture when they built the fire and dried out their clothes, too. . . . The gang fight in the truck on the return trip would have made a swell shot. What a day — what a class!

1. Siesta hour—don't tell us you're studying, David. Doesn't look right to us. 2. Mary Beth Nelson hears one—not a parlor story, either, we'll bet. 3. Miss Jones patronizes the Hi-Y Megaphones for sale — yell for the Bulldogs. 4. Are we seeing double? Which is Gloria and which Glendora? Beulah and Ruby Mae watch the camera. 5. Before the doors open—usual scene with the walks jammed and the faculty forced to push through. Even barriers are put up for the faculty sometimes. 6. Joe gets in the spot-light. Looks like Foozy has made some cynical expression. Lay off, you guys. 7. Yeggs—wrong car. 8. Ozark listens to persuasion or else he's "telling 'em." 9. Bev and Art pose for thier pic. It's a good one too, no?

P.E.P. Club

THE SENIOR P. E. P. is made up of Sophomore, Junior, and Senior girls. The officers for the club this year are as follows: President, Minnette Harris; Vice president, Nina Ferguson; Secretary, Sally Darnell; Treasurer, Cordy Robertson; Program Chairman, Katherine Kluttz; Social Chairmen, Gloria and Glendora Schwantes; Ceremonial, Dean Willoughby; and Music Chairmen are Nancy Silverman and Betty Kimble.

The club had the concession for some of the basketball games and sold candy, gum, and soda pop. It had two candy sales and one noon it had a doughnut and milk sale. The Christmas caroling was a little damp because of the snow but there was a fairly large turn-out for it.

The two formals given by the P. E. P. girls were most successful this year, the first being given during the Christmas vacation and the second beginning the social activities for the last of the year.

D. H. S. Band

THE BAND in their gold and black uniforms commenced their seasons activities by playing during the football games and parading on the field at the half. Following the football season practice was begun on the concert pieces to be played at the Music Festival in Tucson on March 21. Shortly before the festival it was decided to give a free concert first in the assembly for the students and then in the evening for the general public. The festival passed with the brass quartet and the clarinet trio gaining favorable criticism. Preparation was then begun for a series of public appearances the first of which was a good will program in Agua Prieta on April 27. On Tuesday of the next week the band again appeared in Agua Prieta, this time to help Mexico celebrate her independence day. On May 7 the band broadcasted from the local station KSUN. On the following Monday the band and orchestra combined forces and presented another assembly before the student body. For the grand finale of the year the band working with the glee club presented the musical program at the commencement exercises on May 22.

Spanish Girl Reserves

THE FIRST MEETING of the club was held in September with June Burgner, the new president, presiding. The activities for that month and for October consisted mostly of trips to Cave Creek and wiener roasts on Chevrolet Hill. The month of November was given over to knitting for the Red Cross. Christmas activities included contributing canned food to the Y.W.C.A. food basket and entertaining the CCC boys at dances in the Armory and the old gym. In January the club participated whole heartedly in the books for Victory Campaign while in February a Valentines dance for the CCC boys was staged in the Armory. In March the girls sponsored a taco sale at the Hi-Jinx carnival. Although they didn't make much profit they still had a lot of fun. The club is now looking forward to summer activities.
The officers for this year were June Burgner, President; Lillian Burgner, Vice President; Marie Ruiz, Secretary; Carmen Parra, Treasurer; Alice Arguijo, Girl Representative.

Freshmen P.E.P.

THE FRESHMEN P. E. P., the Girl Reserve group for freshmen in high school, began an eventful year last September by electing Katherine Griffiths president; Nixie Alessi, vice-president; Ernestine Evans, treasurer; Marjorie Laskey, secretary; and Peggy Albritton, musical chairman. Mrs. Mary E. Fritz of Grammar school was the club advisor. Around twenty girls were members in this club.

The principal activity of the season was the sponsoring of the dart booth for the senior class's Hi-Jinx carnival, at which time they took in approximately $8.00. The club also gave a food sale, bringing in $10.00 to the treasury; and raffled off a box of candy, earning three dollars.

The Freshman P. E. P. has also done much for worthwhile projects in Douglas, the outstanding ones being buying yarn for the Douglas Red Cross Headquarters, and the making of an afghan for that organization also.

Several of the members of the Freshman club this year will assume duties as officers in the Senior P. E. P. club next year. Among those will be Marjorie Laskey as treasurer, and Betty Barnum, as vocal leader.

"D" Club

THE "D" CLUB, which takes its membership from all boys who have lettered in a major sport, met at the beginning of the year to elect: Tony Morales, president; Joe Salgado, vice-president; and Jim Hoffman, secretary-treasurer. C. R. Johnston, high school principal, took over as club advisor. On October 17, the club members escorted the freshmen boys to "D" Hill, to supervise them while white-washing our letter. On that day also, the club presented the annual "D" Day assembly and sponsored the dance after the victorious football game.

The major activity of the year was the sponsoring of a concert featuring Ewing Mitchell, baritone, on February 26; although this project did not prove profitable to either Mr. Mitchell or to the club. During the Southern Arizona Basketball Conference held here the last of February, the members of this club served as hosts to the visiting teams and assisted in planning the tournament. Other than these undertakings, the organization has been inactive throughout the season.

Hi Y Club

THE CLUB went through a successful year starting with the Hallowe'en Parade and ending with the Sweetheart Banquet. The officers for the first semester were Jeff Grisham—president, Leonard Kimble—vice president. Bill Cowan—secretary, Bob McCue—treasurer. This semester the officers were Bob McCue—president, Bill Cowan—vice president, Pat Westbrook—secretary, and Jim Haythornewhite—treasurer.

The Hi-Y Club had a larger attendance at the Hallowe'en Parade than has been recorded in their history. A show in the Y gym after the parade kept the boys and girls occupied for an hour, after which they were given apples and candy.

The Hi-Y Conference in El Paso was attended by seventeen boys (a larger representation than any other club, including El Paso.) In February the club held their Hi-Y carnival to pay back the boys that went to El Paso.

At the Hi-Jinx Carnival they sponsored the penny pitch, which did not prove very successful. To end the year, a Sweetheart Banquet and Dance attended by members of the club and their dates was given.

National Honor Society

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY began functioning February 6, with an active membership of 18; Richard Moreno Van Dorn was an absentee member. The new semester found six juniors and seven seniors elected to membership, and Glenn G. Dunham was chosen as faculty advisor. The first meeting held was to elect officers and to completely revise the constitution.

Katherine Kluttz was chosen president; Bill Lorack, vice president; Spirros Diamos, treasurer; and Gloria Stocks, secretary. Meetings were originally held on Thursday nights, and later the date was changed to Mondays. The members were divided into groups of three, and these committees were responsible for refreshments and a program for their assigned meeting.

The first activity of the club was to sponsor a baseball throw booth at the Hi-Jinx carnival, the dolls labelled with names of various DHS teachers. Following the custom started by last year's group, the club held a picnic the last school month.

The Triple P Club

THE TRIPLE P CLUB—whose letters stand for players, prompters, and properties—is the dramatics club which has served DHS for this year. Embracing all types of stage work, the club was organized on October 3: Dean Willoughby was elected president; Mary Beth Nelson, vice-president, Margaret Rice, secretary; Madeline Williams, treasurer; and Lurline Gray, librarian. Mrs.Carolyn Ream assumed the responsibility as advisor for the group.

The first production of the club was on November 7, when a radio skit from "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow" was presented in assembly in connection with National Book Week. On December 23 a pantomine Christmas play was presented, entitled "Why the Chimes Ring."

The principal activity of the club was the three-act play, "Ever Since Eve", given April 10. Sponsored by the senior class, this play had an all-school cast, although Triple P members played a majority of the roles.

The Girls Glee Club

CONTINUING A RECORD of outstanding performances, the girls' glee club, under Mrs. Lottie Parks Hess, this year seemed to be especially active. The girls met separately, and combined with the boys for special numbers as a mixed chorus.

From the girls' group, a sextette was chosen: Betty Kimble, Minnette Harris, Mary Sticht, Bea Holtry, Ninelle Hopkins, and Annabelle Jeffries. Ana Soto replaced Betty Kimble the second semester. The sextette entertained civic organizations, and took part in the glee club concerts.

October 29 marked the first showing when they sang for a defense program. Work was then begun for the Christmas program, for which the girls had a major portion of the singing. The appearance at the festival was especially outstanding, and there the girls first wore their white uniforms with gold and black emblems.

The Spring concert on April 15 was the setting for the final performance at which the girls sang two groups of numbers.

Mixed Chorus

WITH SCHEDULED CLASSES for the first time in several years, the DHS mixed chorus played a prominent part in all activities undertaken by the vocal department. Under Mrs. Lottie Parks Hess, this group appeared first for the Christmas program on December 19, singing a group of well-known carols. At this time also they assisted in a community sing held downtown.

The personnel of the mixed chorus was greatly changed with the new schedules; and the unit, with classes the second and third periods, began preparation for the Southern Arizona Music Festival which was held in Tucson on March 21. Douglas's mixed chorus presented two numbers on the afternoon performance, and took part in the massed chorus that evening.

The Spring concert was the next engagement for the mixed chorus; and, in addition to their own group of songs, ended the program with patriotic numbers. The final showing was for the Baccalaureate program the last Sunday in the term.

Jr. Music Club

THE JUNIOR MUSIC CLUB of DHS has had an especially active season under the guidance of Minette Harris, club president. The first meeting of the year was on September 15, which was held mainly to elect officers and approximately twenty new girls to membership in the club. Mrs. Lottie Parks Hess assumed the duties of club sponsor. Other officers chosen were Nina Ferguson, vice president; Katherine Kluttz, secretary-treasurer; Betty Kimble, program chairman; and Cordelia Robertson, social chairman. Meetings were held the first Monday in each month, with alternating committees serving refreshments throughout the year. The musical programs centered around the theme of "American Neighbors and Their Music." The first activity of the club was the sponsoring of a fun house for the Hi-Jinx Carnival, which was under the direction of Nina Ferguson and Polly Hagan. A profit of $2.25 over the $7.50 concession fee, was realized. The annual tea for parents of the Junior Music Club girls and for the members of the Senior Music club was given on Sunday, May 3. The only date affair of the year was the picnic given on May 15 in Leslie Canyon.

Boosters' Club

AN ORGANIZATION ending its first year is the Boosters, with an aim to back any activity which needed student support. Under the leadership of Miss Mildred Dailey, this club undertook one project each month, and did its utmost to make that a worthy one.

The club was organized in September, with membership of class presidents, class representatives, and all who tried out for yell leaders, and the student-body president. A chairman was chosen for each month, who was to head that period's activities.

For the first project they presented the annual "D" Day assembly, and also sold football pins for that game. Next on the calendar were boosting the Las Cruces motorcade, and the sale of season basketball tickets. The new year saw the Red Cross Benefit dance, which netted around $40 to the Red Cross fund. The Boosters conducted the Victory Book Campaign, and gave the stage show, "The American Way," for the Hi-Jinx Carnival.
